2021, 07 (July) - minor - Static Pages

Added an ability to add static pages to applications, which require no user authentication to view and can receive data from Events.

The main use case - need to share something on social networks that happens in App

More info will be up soon